

Shattered Raptures

Written by Lynne Sturrock

MR RIGHT MAY BE JUST AROUND THE CORNER...

PERHAPS RUNNING A BIT LATE!

Lynne has loved her share of men and failed as much as succeeded in all attempts. Because of this she has some clever advice for when you are stuck in a difficult situation.

Through heartbreak and divorce, Lynne's story is of discovery and searching for the elusive light at the end of the tunnel.

A life journey of learning to love beyond fear and knowing the freedom to value her life and happiness as a sacred part of her soul. The inspiring, true story of perseverance, even when confronted by loss and heartbreak.

As she says often to many who ask, "Don't give up ladies. Keep looking your best. Hold your head high and your heart higher.

Always keep smiling..."

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Lynne Sturrock is a retired Queensland shopping centre manager, which involved marketing and live audience promotions for over twenty years.

In 1984 it was a male dominated field, but she managed to claw her way up the ladder, using wild imagination to create never before seen promotions, immediately attracting the media and huge crowds in all the shopping centres she managed.

It has been her burning desire to write this story and share with others, faced with torrid business experiences, personal continuing dilemmas, and racy liaisons, whilst searching for true love.

A CONVERSATION WITH THE AUTHOR

WHAT DREW YOU TO WRITING SHATTERED RAPTURES?

As a memoir I have a very good memory and wanted to share it with people that could identify themselves with similar experiences they had. I have found it very tough to write some of my recollections, good and bad but most of all extremely most cathartic.

HOW DO YOU SELECT NAMES OF YOUR CHARACTERS?

As it is a memoir I do have to be respectful to keep identities out of my book. I look up names in their years and select ones that appeal to me that seem to fit the characters in my story.

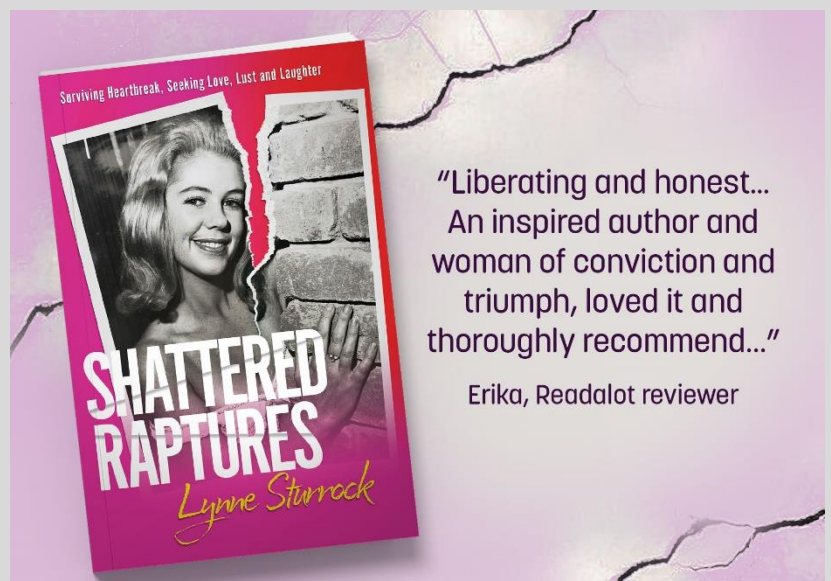

WHEN DID YOU FIRST REALISE YOU WANTED TO WRITE?

In grade four when I started writing a poem and the teacher wrote it on the blackboard and another child illustrated it. Later on I always did well in English Literature with essays.

I found the process of writing my memoir to be extremely cathartic and when others enjoyed reading the stories I believed I could finally write my own story.
