ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Sam Baker has always been a dreamer. Writing down his dreams has led him to create many unique stories and poems. He comes from a long line of creative people, so writing is a natural outlet and way to express himself. He was born in Canberra, Australia and currently lives in a small rural town with his wife. When he's not working on his naval duties, he's reading anything sci-fi or fantasy, watching movies or cooking. Watching Gordon Ramsay is a guilty pleasure of his and he collects Folio Society Books. He's inspired by Christopher Paolini, Neil Gaiman, and Patrick Ness, to name a few. He hopes to one day be someone's inspiration to write.
