AT FIRST, SHE IS JUST ANOTHER ASSIGNMENT, UNTIL HE FALLS IN LOVE...

God does not interfere with earthly matters. Until now.
Gabe is a Chosen Guardian Angel, assigned to protect Harmony.

He is torn between saving the girl he loves and his obligation to his heavenly responsibilities.

Harmony is fed up with being bullied at school; all she wants is for it to end. The answer, she believes, is to die.

What she doesn't know is that for the past two years she has been assigned a Chosen Guardian Angel, Gabe, and he will do anything to save her.

By choosing to save her, he will face the consequences.

A story of romance, enlightenment, and passion beyond good and evil. A tale for the ages and the ageless...

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

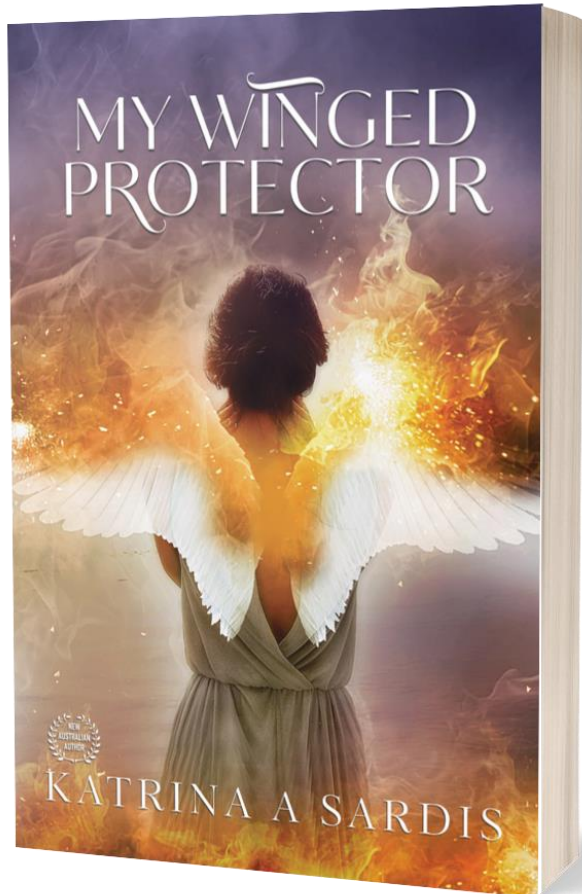

Katrina A Sardis is an Australian 'author'. She is university educated and has attained multiple degrees across various disciplines. She has five children ranging from primary age to adulthood.

Katrina A Sardis is a versatile writer, who crosses from one genre to another. She discovered the creativity of writing from an early age. She believes that stories have the ability to project hope into the broken and create the alternative 'world' for the lost.

A CONVERSATION WITH THE AUTHOR

WHY DID YOU WRITE MY WINGED PROTECTOR? WHAT WAS YOUR INSPIRATION?

I wrote My Winged Protector because I had a conceptual idea. I wanted to express the idea of idealisation that surrounds religion. I expressed the writing from my own point of view whilst staying close to the Catholic boundaries, in a sense.

WHAT WAS THE BIGGEST CHALLENGE WHEN WRITING MY WINGED PROTECTOR?

The biggest challenge was clearly expressing what I wanted the intended reader to feel and understand. I also watched various suicide topics surrounding young persons. That was emotionally impacting.

TELL US ABOUT AN INTERESTING EXPERIENCE YOU HAD WHILE WRITING MY WINGED PROTECTOR.

Originally My Winged Protector was darker, and after a few chapters, the hard drive on my computer froze. I lost all original files, and I began again, though this time I lightened the mood.
