A CONVERSATION WITH THE AUTHOR

WHY DID YOU WRITE MUMMY WITH ME?

I was trying to understand my toddler as she transitioned to daycare. I gave up taking her to daycare after about six weeks and I started reading books on toddlers, montessori approaches to learning and started watching YouTube videos on attachment theory. I then started to think about how I could normalise the experience for her before we go back for another attempt at daycare. I started to think about what I would like to happen.

WHEN DID YOU FIRST REALISE YOU WANTED TO WRITE?

I have been writing since high school, it's just taken nearly twenty years to realise that a rejection isn't that big of a deal. It's a crazy schedule now trying to fit it in around the kids. I enjoy spending a lot of my time reading also, which feels like part of the writing process as having books to draw from can help with inspiration to write.
